Join us for the JBoss Party

This year, we're having the famous JBoss JavaOne party at the historic "Slide" at 430 Mason Street (between Derby St & Geary St, next to Ruby Skye), adjacent to Union Square. During Prohibition, 430 Mason Street was called "The Cable Car Theater" and below was a "restaurant" called "Cafe Dans" - but Cafe Dans was not a restaurant. It was a speakeasy that could be accessed only by a savvy few who pushed a secret wall that lead to a playground slide, and a hidden subculture of nightlife and you can still "Slide" in via a cool, serpentine slide.

When: Tuesday, September 21st at 5:00pm

Where: The historic "Slide" at 430 Mason St (between Derby St & Geary St, next to Ruby Skye), adjacent to Union Square

* You must present this card at the door. Admit one person per card.
